Dantzick, September 3.

A Detachment of the Troops of this Garriſon which were at the late Camp near Warſaw, are come back hither, extremely ſatisfied with the King of Poland's Liberality towards them: He made very valuable Preſents to each Officer, and gave every Soldier two Months Pay over and above what was due to him. We have Advices from Warſaw, that the Deputies nominated to aſſiſt at the General Diet, which is to be held there before the End of this Month, are many of them already arrived there, and that it was rumoured the King deſigns to declare Mr. Poniatowski Crown General, but it was believed ſeveral Deputies will hardly be brought to conſent to it. M. de Tarlo, late Biſhop of Poſnania, has by his Will left his Library to the Jeſuits of that Place, and a conſiderable Sum towards the Maintenance of their College.

Berlin, Sept. 13. Orders have been diſpatched to a conſiderable Number of Forces to hold themſelves in a Readineſs to march upon the firſt Notice to quarter in the Country between the Oder and the Elbe. The Court is at Wuſterhauſen, whither Count Seckendorff, M. de Munckhauſen, and Baron de Ginkel, repaired on the 9th Inſtant. The Count de Lewolde, Maſter of the Horſe to the Czarina, arrived there on the 10th. The next Day the King went a Stag-hunting; after which the Anniverſary of the Battle of Malplaquet, in which his Majeſty was perſonally, was celebrated by a great Entertainment, to which his Majeſty invited his Miniſters and General Officers. The Court will remain ſome Weeks at Wuſterhauſen, which the King is reſolved to enlarge by new Buildings.

Hague, Sept. 19. Letters from Copenhagen of the 9th Inſtant give an Account, that Mr. Titley, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter, being returned thither from Hanover, had a private Audience of the King of Denmark ſoon after he arrived. The Lady Portland ſet out from hence ſome Days ago for Aix la Chapelle.
